Drumming Circle Finds a Home at 6 on the Square

In addition to offering Open Mic at no charge every other Thursday evening, we are delighted to now host a Drumming Circle the last Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. A drum circle is a group of people joined together to create a rhythmical, musical, and spiritual experience. Make a plan to join us on Tuesday, October 30 or November 27. Bring your drum if you have one, or just join us and try out some of our other percussion instruments!

Help Wanted!

Our mission states that we are a "volunteer-based community service organization committed to promoting music and the arts in central New York." That means we need a lot of volunteers! We are desperately seeking people who are willing to help out by working in the kitchen, acting as an emcee, or completing pre-show set-up or after show clean-up. We especially need people to run the sound board during shows; training will be provided. Interested?? Let us know through the website or by leaving a message at 607-843-OTS6 (6876).

Saturday, October 20, 7:30 pm - The Jamie Notarthomas Trio

A well known performer in the central New York area, Jamie brings along a bass player and percussionist. His blend of folk with other forms of music makes for an unusual style that is all his own. Some songs are hilarious, some compassionate, while others carry messages of tolerance or the beauty of nature. Tickets are $18 until the day of the show; $20 on the day of the show.

Friday, October 26, 7:30 - 10:00 p.m. - Pumpkin Bash!

Can you do the Monster Mash?? Come dressed in costume for a fun-filled evening with our DJ Jim Baldwin. We'll have a contest for the Best Costume, with the winner receiving complimentary tickets to one of our shows! Admission is $5 per person.

Friday, November 9, 7:30 pm - Rod Picott

Rod's slightly raspy voice makes you feel like you're listening to an old friend as you sit back and take in his sometimes reflective, sometimes compelling music. You may recognize some of the songs he has written that have been performed by Fred Eaglesmith or Slaid Cleaves, or maybe heard Rod when he opened for Alison Krauss. Rod is an "underground talent" who will make you one of his biggest fans after listening to him for only a few minutes. Tickets are $12 until the day of the show; $15 on the day of the show.

Saturday, November 10, 7:30 pm - Phil Shapiro & Carrie Shore "The American Folk Tradition"

Phil is a legend in folk music because of his long-time Ithaca radio program Bound For Glory. Add Carrie's fiddle and harmonizing vocals to Phil's guitar and lead, and you have an unmatched duo performing American folk music - and proud of it! They share their love of folk music with the audience - their energy and enthusiasm is catching and you'll find yourself singing along with the familiar tunes. Tickets are $12 until the day of the show; $15 on the day of the show.

Saturday, November 17 - Djug Django

Central New York's premier Gypsy Swing band comes to Oxford! Gypsy swing, also known as gypsy jazz, is an energized music form dating from the 1930's, with the feisty passion of gypsy music coupled with big band swing and improvisations. We bet you'll be up on your feet dancing to this acoustic treat! Tickets are $15 until the day of the show; $18 on the day of the show.

Friday, November 23, 7:30 p.m. - Fetish Lane

Fetish Lane kicked off our Grand Opening Weekend in June, and they're back with us again to kick off the Holiday season. It's hard to pigeonhole the music of Fetish Lane - it's a little bit folk, a little bit rock, and a whole lot of attitude! Tight harmonies, melodies that linger, and all backed by a driving percussion, this 6 piece group will indeed start your season with a big mule kick! Tickets are $8 until the day of the show; $10 on the day of the show.

Saturday, November 24, 3:00 and 7:30 pm - David LaFleur

Folk, Appalachian, blues, bluegrass.....Roots music performer David LaFleur plays it all. His newest CD "Shepherds Pie" has 2 award-winning songs on it, and his "The Talking George Bush Mispronunciation Blues" won first prize in the Pacific Songwriting Competition. David will be with us for 2 shows. The 3:00 pm family show for Tots, Tweens, and Teens is a condensed version of his classes, introducing the instruments he plays to the audience: guitar, dobro, mandolin, and dulcimer. This will be a fun and interactive show - you won't even know how much you're learning until the show's over! Tickets are $5 per family (any number of adults and children). The 7:30 show will provide an evening of escape from the hubbub and stress of a weekend of too much to do! David will magically take you back to a simpler time with his music and stories, invite you to sing along on old favorites, and introduce you to some "new folk." Tickets are $12 until the day of the show; $15 on the day of the show.

Saturday, December 8, 7:30 pm - Toby Walker

Listening to Little Toby Walker is like traveling from here to blues country and everywhere in between. Toby's unique fingering style and his passion for the blues, combined with old-fashioned story telling, make you believe you are sitting in the room with him at the knee of legends like Etta Baker, Eugene Powell, James "Son" Thomas, R. L. Burnside, and others. His awards include the International Blues Challenge Award, he has played showcase performances at many of the national blues shows, and he has shared the bill with folks like Richie Havens, Bo Diddley, Savoy Brown, Sonny Landreth, and more. Tickets are $15 until the day of the show; $18 on the day of the show.

Toby will also offer an intermediate-level blues guitar Master Class on Saturday afternoon. Pre-registration is required. Please contact 6ots or visit our website, www.6onthesquare.org, for more information.
